Suicide Bereavement UK's International Conference 2027
Exhibition Information and Terms and Conditions

Exhibition Tables - If you are interested in having a stand at Suicide Bereavement UK's conference, please note that there is a charge of £100 (CHARITIES ARE FREE) for having an exhibition table at the event and we stipulate that at least 2 people MUST register and pay to attend the conference at https://suicidebereavementuk.com/suicide-bereavement-conference/

If we are oversubscribed, tables will be allocated, by the committee, according to the relevance of the information to delegates.

An exhibitor stand includes:

- A table space
- Two chairs
- Space to set up one pull-up banner by your stand
- Exhibitors may bring laptops but power points are not provided with stands. Suicide Bereavement UK is not responsible for any loss, theft, or damage to any laptops or to exhibitors displays or property.
- Please note that we do not permit anyone to have a stand if it is to financially gain (in any way) from the vulnerable people who attend this event. In addition, those who are given an exhibition table are also not permitted to promote such organisations. Please contact Paul Higham (paul.higham@suicidebereavementuk.com if you have any queries about this matter.

Sending materials to the venue in advance:

- You must arrange for any courier/package to arrive on 15th September 2026 and not any earlier.
- Any packages should be clearly labelled and sent to: FAO Paul Higham, Suicide Bereavement Conference 30/09/2027, c/o Midland Hotel, 16 Peter St, Manchester M60 2DS

The exhibition space will be available for you to set up your stand from 8 am on 30th September 2027. Please ask for Paul Higham upon arriving at the registration desk and you will be directed you to your allocated space.

Please can you leave your stand fully set up until at least the afternoon coffee break has concluded at 3.30pm.
